4 MINUTE MEN WILL REMAIN IN HARNESS

At Booster Meeting Nearly 100 Members Decide To Re-enlist In Service of Nation

TAKE UP W. S. S. CAMPAIGN

The banquet of the Four Minute Men and War Workers held at The Dimeling last evening was one of the most satisfactory functions held in Clearfield in a long time and those responsibe for the gathering are deserving of every praise. The men who do things in almost every community in the county were present and when one looked into their faces and listened to the earnest remarks of the assigned speakers he realized almost unconsciously and instantly why every war activity went through with a whoop and hurrah in old Clearfield county.

All told there were present 86 representatives of the business and professional ranks of the county. Hon. Joseph E. Phillips, chairman of the Speakers' Bureau of the Four Minute Men and one of Clearfield county's most indefatigable war workers presided. The genial Joseph was at home in the position and added much to the success of the occasion by his expert handling of the talent available.

Mine Host McGinnis provided a tasty and appetizing repast which was summarily dealt with after which the deck was cleared for action, cigars were lighted and at the signal from the Toastmaster the "feast of reason and flow of soul" was on. Then for two hours or more the assembled diners were regaled by the different speakers with words of commendation for willing, loyal, patriotic assistance and past achievements, with words of wisdom, caution and prophecy relating to the momentous period now at haod, the solution of the problems on which will largely depend on the organization of Four Minute Men and kindred organizations throughout the nation.

Toastmaster Phillips in his introduction read a telegram from B. H. Ludlow, Esq., associate state director of the Four Minute Men, in which the latter gentleman paid high tribute to the work done in Clearfield county.

Mr. Phillips then introduced H. B. Powell, President of the County National bank and the acknowledged dean of Clearfield county bankers, to whom had been assigned the subject "Liberty Loans: Past and Future." Mr. Powell told of the great work accomplished in our district and paid glowing tribute to the patriotic people of the county who accomplished the seemingly impossible in the matter of their great liberality to their government. He spoke of the wonderful resources of our section and mentioned the fact that unlike many other industrial centres Clearfield county produced within her own boundaries the raw materials entering into the products which have made us famous. He expressed himself as being more than proud of the fact that Clearfield county people loaned their government more than one million dollars per month during the past fifteen months. He closed by thanking the Four Minute Men for their assistance and for the pleasure their association had given him.

Hobart Callahan, the energetic county chairman of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, was the next speaker. Chairman Callahan told of some of the work of the campaign and thanked those present for their loyal support. He presented the following statement, showing the result by districts.

Ward Weed was assigned to speak of "The War Savings Campaign". Mr. Welch who is chairman of that committee, asked for the cooperation of the Four Minute Men in this work as it was the only war activity in which our county lagged behind.

Dr. E. C. Reeve made a strong plea for the United War Fund campaign and eloquently urged the great need for the assistance of the different welfare organizations to the boys over there during the reconstruction period when time will hank heavy upon the hands of the soldier released from war's engrossing excitement and subject to double or treble the temptations of war days.

President R. L. Sommerville of the Selective Service board for District No. 1 talked on "Selective Service" and intelligently outlined to his hearers the lessons learned in the selective service work. He spoke very highly of the young men of Clearfield county and said their patriotism and loyalty was equal to every test. Out of seven thousand registered men in District No. 1 there were less than one hundred delinquents and not over ten per cent of these were purposely so. The enemy alien and the yellow streak was so small as to be almost negligible. Men of every nationality in Clearfield county had come out of the "melting pot" perfectly assimilated all were intensely American. He said the selective service boards had inducted more than three thousand men into the different branches of the service and the records available showed about an equal number of voluntary enlistments.

"National Defense Activities" was the subject assigned Secretary John M. Bain, of the County Commttee of National Defense. Mr. Bain handled the same in his usual capable manner and furnished much food for thought.

Father E. J. Fisher, of Morrisdale, was called upon to speak of "The Ideal Four Minute Man". His introduction by the Toastmaster left no doubt in the minds of the banqueters as to who was an Ideal Four Minute Man and when the gtnial reverend gentleman got under way he demonstrated why the campaign was so successful in his sub-district. He made a happy little speech and drove home some telling points in his plea for unity and a continuation of the organization.

"Americanization: The Problem Facing Us", was handled by Chairman Woodward of the Public Safety committee in his usual highly capable and entertaining manner. Mr Woodward devoted himself to a common sense discourse on the needs of the hour, pointed out the dangers confronting Europe today and made a plea for the earnest cooperation of the Four Minute Men and all other loyal American citizens to combat the spirit of unrest throughout the world.

G. A. Stewart of The Progress was called upon to talk on "Newspapers and Publicity in War Times" and gave the assembled banqueters a newspaperman's idea not only as to what the newspapers should do but what they did do in the trying times now nearing a close.

A. V. Dively, Esq., of Altoona, chairman of the Four Minute Men of Blair county, an invited guest at the [illegible] gave his experiences in war work in our neighboring county. Mr. Dively is a polished orator and gave his audience an old-fashioned American idea of the necessities of the hour and the way to meet it troublesome questions.

"Military History for Clearfield County and Fitting Memorial to Men in the Service" was intelligently discussed by Hon. J. Frank Snyder who offered the suggestion that a suitable memorial be created or erected to perpetuate the memory of Clearfield county soldiers in all the wars of the nation and following his remarks on motion of H. B. Powell, Mr. Snyder, M. I. McCreight, of DuBois and Amos Rumberger of Houtzdale, were appointed a committee to take up the matter and work out a satisfactory solution at an early dare.

FOUR OF U. S. PEACE COMMISSION HAVE BEEN DECIDED UPON

WASHINGTON Nov. 27.—Four of the peace commissioners have been definitely decided upon, it was authoritatively stated today. They are President Wilson, Col. House, Secretary Lansing, and ex-Ambassador Henry White, the Republican representative. There probably will be one more cabinet member. Secretary Baker who was to have gone finds he is unable to leave now owing to the preesntation of the army bill to the forthcoming Congress. Apparently the President has not decided whether Secretary Daniels or Huston will take Baker's place. If there are to be any more than five it was not indicated by officials close to the President.

SITUATION CALM IN GERMANY TODAY

By ED. L. KEEN

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The situation in Germany apparently is calm but the country is not yet safe from Bolshevikism. The decisive attitude of Kurt Eisner, President of the Bavarian Republic, is unifying anti-Bolshevik sentiment throughout Germany Right now he is probably the strongest man in the whole country. His adherents have made it plain they will not stand any nonsense and have issued a warning to von Hindeburg to keep out of politics. On the other hand it is reported that there are 70,000 armed soldiers in Berlin over whom Carl Liebnecht, self styled Bolsheviki, is trying to get control in order to start a counter revolution. Posters have been distributed in Coolgne offering $25 reward for the former Kaiser and the Crown Prince, "dead or alive".

WAR BOND RESTRICTIONS REMOVED ON PAPER INDUSTRY.

Washington, Nov. 27—All restrictions affecting the publishers of periodicals have been rescinded except on daily, Sunday and weekly newspapers, the war industries board announced today. Restrictions were not lifted on daily, Sunday and weekly newspapers it was explained, because newspaper publishers requested that the board continue to exercise control over the use of news print for the present. However, restrictions on weekly papers will be lifted December 1. Restrictions covering the manufacture of wall paper the making of wall paper and designs also were lifted.

NEW MILLPORT BOY MISSING

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 21. (Delayed.)—"I hope that when peace is signed America will remember that she and Germany were once friendly," Frederick Wilhelm, former German Crown Prince, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

The correspondent traveled with the former Crown Prince from Swaelmen Castle to Weringen where he was interned this afternoon. He appeared to be in good health, smiled frequently and wore a sportsman's suit of brown tweeds. He was accompanied by two majors. He rode in a first class compartment but it was unheated.

The former Crown Prince talked with the correspondent at a time when the former was temporarily alone. "I am unable to make any formal statement as my mouth has been closed by orders. I do not know how long I will be in Holland where I am accorded nice treatment. My future depends upon the revolution. I hope I will see Germany again but I must be patient. My knowledge of events is only thru the newspapers. I haven't seen my family for weeks even my father, who I am told also lives in Holland. I have not heard anything regarding my wife, my children or any friends but have I any friends left? I hope that when peace is signed America will remember that he and Germany were once friendly. That is all I can say."

The former Crown Prince was blunt regarding the food question. "Food in Holland is good but I eat very little," he said. "I wish to retain my slender sportsman-like figure and I can't afford to get fat."

The former Crown Prince expects to indulge in skating. Wieringen is a small island. A rented parsonage is the only good house. Frederick Wilhelm ordered a piano and a billiard table. Here he expects to dictate his war memoirs. He terminated his interview with the correspondent by saying "greet America for me".

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Union Thanksgiving service will be held in Trinity Methodist church Thursday, November, 28 at ten o'clock sharp. The sermon will be reached by Rev. C. W. Baker, of the Lutheran church. The offering will be for the hospital. We have unusual cause for Thanksgiving this year. Our Heavenly Father has been very good to us. Let all the people assemble at the appointed place of worship and lift a song of praise to the giver of all good for His wonderful and tender mercies to the children of men.

MARRIED

ALSACE WELCOMES LIBERATORS WHO ESTABLISH ORDER

By Frank J. Taylor

Strassburg, Nov. 25—Night—Infantry divisions are taking care of the Alsatian towns controlled by German soviets. They are handling the situation in a most creditable manner, restoring order, providing food for the people and caring for the refugees.

The Alsatians are delighted with French ideas on constructional occupation. The intermingling of soldiers and civilians are doing more to maintain order than the German forbiddings ever did. The formal entrance of the French military officials today following the actual occupation by the French troops yesterday was enthusiastically hailed by the population. Marshall Petain was accompanied by General Castelnau and General Giraud. Exercises were held and the Marseilles was sung in front of the Kaiser's palace which was decorated with French and allied colors. The whole city joined in the celebration. A week spent with the victorious French army of occupation in Alsace-Lorraine has convinced me that the people are almost unanimously French at heart. The few roaming German soldiers are rapidly leaving Alsace. They are entirely out of Lorraine.

FIFTH LOAN COMING

Washington, Nov. 27—Secretary McAdoo today announced plans "for one more great popular campaign for the sale of bonds" in a letter to all banks made public by the Treasury department. McAdoo outlined the treasury's policy for the next five months embracing a series of bi-weekly treasury certificate issues in anticipation of the Fifth loan.

MORE HONORS FOR COL. FRED B. KERR

The work of the engineers with the American Expeditionary Forces in France has been the wonder of the world and the great accomplishmen of this hardworking branch of our army had a very great deal to do with the signal and final triumph of allied arms.

That being so, it is doubly gratifying to Clearfield and Clearfield county people to know that one of our townsmen, Col. Fred B. Kerr has been the directing head of one of the biggest and best units in those engineering forces.

According to the press dispatches of Monday last Col. Kerr's 23d Engineers were entrusted with the restoring of the railroad line between Verdun and Metz, the road over which the entire supplies of the American First army are transported. The boche devoted four years to putting this railroad out of business and so well did he do his work that nine miles of the roadbed and territory it traversed had been literally blown away. The ten thousand members of the 23d no doubt have the road in shape for traffic now

Col. Kerr has made a great record since going to France and some time before hostilities ended was made Chief Engineer of Roads for the American First army, a position of great responsibility which he won on his merits.

THE FLU SITUATION

There were ten new cases of influeiza reported up to 3 o'clock today with two doctors to hear from. There are 38 patients in the emergency hospital. There were four admissions and three discharges today. Mrs. Temple and Mrs. Fred Demi are seriously ill, with two other patients quite sick. The others are doing very well.

WORDS FAIL

Yesterday was indeed a trying day for the local newspaper man. It was a sad duty to be compelled to chronicle the death of such young men as James Young, Harry Delaney and Clarence Rishell, all our valued friends and men in whom we had the greatest faith and confidence. This together with our old friend and radiator of good cheer, Clark Boyer, causes us to cease our labor and wonder in what fitting way we can express our sorrow for their families and our appreciation of their friendship.

NOW, ALL TOGETHER!

Reconstruction problems are not alone for the solution of men at Washington, or in New York, or in Europe. Every person in the big city or the remote hamlet, can do his share. The returned soldiers will go back to their homes on the farms, and in the mountains, as well as to homes in the cities. Most of these men will find occupations for themselves. In fact, after the strenuous life they have led, it is a safe guess that the stay-at-homes will have a busy time meeting the competition of the men who have been "over there". But there will be cases of unfortunates who have been crippled, or who have never been trained for anything but the most common labor. Some of these will need help—not charity, nor support, but a friendly aid in getting started again. It will be comparatively easy to help these men along, but everyone must make it his business to add his assistance when opportunity offers. It will be a misfortune to the men themselves if the people of the country look upon them as subjects for coddling or charity. With few exceptions, they will not so regard themselves, unless gradually induced to do so by thoughtless emotionalists. Under the selective draft law they were taken out of civil occupations and put into the army and navy. By the exercise of such measures as may be practicable they should be placed back in civil occupations by selection. Except in cases where their working powers have been impaired, they will then take care of themselves. The selective process of getting them back into private industry is the important step in the reconstruction program. Let everybody help.

A NEW NAME

There is something in a name. Bolsheviki is a name that one cannot forget. It sounds forceful and indicates action in its pronounciation. Originally Russian it bids fair to become an international institution. The very name itself will draw unsuspecting discontents to its doors. Many a man is a potential member of the Bolsheviki today and does not realize it. In the small army of discontents that we have today and in the greater army of discontents that we are bound to have in the near future there will be thousands of men willing to turn to whatever ism promises them most and for promises and radical ideals the Bolsheviki has the oil stock salesman nailed to the wall.

The Bolsheviki might have started out with high ideals and the best of intentions but it has become the haven and refuge of anarchists and vandals. While there is no active branch of the organization in this country it is safe to predict that the organizers will within a short time be among us and that a small percentage of our population will blindly and unsuspectingly enlist under its treason stained banner. It is the arch enemy of patriotism and the loyal citizens of Clearfield County can well turn their watchful eyes on the horizon to nip in the bud the first manifestation of its appearance here. The thing, the creed and the name itself are things to be shunned and not countenanced.

Keep Up The Thrift Habit

The purchase of Liberty Loan Bonds has taught the habit of Thrift to a great many Americans.

Now the fight is over, it is just as important for our own sakes, to be thrifty, as it has been during the War for the benefit of our Government.

You have saved to buy Liberty Bonds. There are many other excellent bonds, whose safety is unquestioned, on the market. When the Government no longer needs to borrow your savings, don't forget your habit of Thrift. Keep on saving and buying bonds.

Let us advise you.

ALLIES ARE FED BY SELF DENIAL

Generous Doing Without in America Supplied Food to Europe.

Exports from this country since it entered the war have kept starvation from Allied Europe and have maintained the health and strength of those who have been bearing the brunt of our battles, so that they could hold out to victory. Now that hostilities have ceased we must assume the added burden of keeping starvation from increasing its toll upon the millions who have been liberated from the Prussian yoke. Famine would undo the work which has been accomplished in freeing the world for democracy. No stable government can be established and maintained by a nation harassed by hunger. A starving people turns to rioting and anarchy. Food has given strength and courage to the nations fighting for democracy; it must now give the nations strength and tranquility to reestablish themselves in freedom and democracy.

Without our help it would have been absolutely impossible for the Allies to maintain a living ration. Since our entry into the war we have been contributing largely to the support of one hundred and twenty million people whose normal food supplies have been cut off, whose production has fallen almost to the vanishing point, whose fields have been devastated by Germany. The food exported from the United States in the past year has been sufficient to supply the complete ration of twenty-two million people.

It is hard to grasp the magnitude and significance of the assistance which has been lent the Allies by the patriotic, voluntary service of the American people. The food we sent abroad last year would have been sufficient to feed one-fifth of our population. And this was done in spite of the fact that we entered the year with short crops. Our surplus was practically nothing. An overwhelming proportion of the food that left this country last year was saved out of the normal home consumption of our own people.

In spite of difficulties met in internal transportation and shortage of ocean tonnage our food exports last year amounted to a figure that a few years ago would have been unbelievable. Even the most optimistic element of our population faced with anxious consternation the prospect which opened before us with the beginning of the 1917 harvest year.

The American people have not been compelled to save. They have been appealed to on the basis of humanity and of patriotism. They have responded voluntarily.

Miss Grayce L. Mackie, who is located in Washington, D. C. arrived home on the morning express, having been called here on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. William Clark, who is suffering from the flu.

WHEAT SHOWED SPIRIT OF U. S.

SUFFICIENT SUPPLY NOW.

All the Nations Will Be Able to Return to Their Normal Supply of White Bread.

Overshadowing all other accomplishments of the American people under the leadership of Food Administration is the history of wheat exports in the past sixteen months. Our wheat export program proved conclusively to the world that America was in this war from start to finish and willing to make any sacrifice that will hasten victory or maintain the health and strength of people overseas, upon whom rested the heaviest weight of our war.

Now that pressure on ocean tonnage is eased by the stopping of large movements of troops to Europe, we may relax our efforts to save wheat. The accumulated surplus in Australia, Argentine and other hitherto inaccessible markets will become available, and probably no more than our normal surplus will have to leave this country. We in America and the nations which have won the world for freedom will be enabled to eat their normal wheat loaf at the common table of the peoples of democracy.

We entered the past crop year with a wheat supply which gave us only 20,000,000 bushels available for export. When the crop year ended, we had sent 141,000,000 bushels of wheat to Europe. The American people had saved out of their normal consumption 121,000,000 bushels.

A survey of export figures shows that the conservation of flour brought about by the wheatless meals, wheatless days, substitution in our kitchens and bakeries, enabled us to send to our armies and the allies 33,000,000 barrels of white flour—wheat figured as flour. Had we exported only our visible surplus, we would have been able to ship less than 4,500,000 barrels.

Before the 1st of December our surplus had gone overseas, and an additional 85,000,000 bushels had been taken from the stock reserved for home consumption and added to the surplus already shipped to the allies. It seemed hardly possible that we could bring our total exports above 100,000,000 bushels by July 1. But in January the late Lord Rhondda, then British Food Controller, cabled that unless we could send an additional 75,000,000 bushels he could not take responsibility for assuring his people that they would be fed. The American people responded by sending 85,000,000 bushels of wheat, saved from their home consumption, between the first of the year and the advent of the new crop.

By October 10, 1918, we had already shipped 65,960,305 bushels since July 1. Absolutely the only limitation upon our wheat exports since the latest harvest has been the scarcity of ocean tonnage. If exports continue at the present rate, by July 1 of next year we will have sent more than 237,500,000 bushels to Europe.

Thus are we making good America's pledge that the bread rations of Allied Europe shall be maintained.

Eighty millions of men cannot be taken out of production for four years without losses of yield. It will be years before their fields recuperate, farms are restored and herds re-stocked. Save food.

Similar Cases Being Published in Each Issue

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Clearfield. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

William Arthurs, carpenter 315 Merrill street, Clearfield says: "I have been troubled by pains across the small of my back and over my kidneys. I have had this trouble especially in the winter when the weather has been severe and I think it has been due to colds settling in my back and kidneys. Pains have caught me when I have stooped over and frequently have extended into my shoulders and hips. When one of these attacks have come on, I have used Doan's Kidney pills and they have eased the pains through my back."

HAPPY SOLUTION PRAYED FOR

The case of Chester Arnold Millberg of Glen Richey, appears to be similar to that of Harry Souders and his parents and friends are earnestly hoping that the war department is in error in announcing the young man's death.

The young man is with the American Expeditionary forces in France and last week Mrs. Milberg was advised by the war department that her son had been officially reported as killed in action on October 8th last.

Several days pervious to the arrival of this o cial notification Mrs. Millberg received a letter from Chester dated October 23d, fifteen days after he was supposed to have been killed. The letter was written from a base hospital in France and said he was getting along finely.

The war department has been notified and is now investigating the matter, but it appears beyond question that the young soldier is alive and well.

Often CURES constipation. Prevents appendicitis. We have sold Adler-i-ka many years. It is a mixture of buckthorn cascara, gycerine and nine other simple drugs. C. W. Dooley, druggist.

BURIED AT BURNSIDE

Mrs. Elizabeth Stauffer Armstrong died at her home in Brockwayville on Friday November 22d, 1918 of influenza, after a brief illness, aged about 35 years. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stauffer of Burnside, and a sister of Paul Stauffer of Clearfield. She is survived by her husband and two sons.

The remains were taken to Burnside for internment.

It takes fifty pounds of parafin candles to provide as much light as 1000 cubic feet of illuminating gas.

Since "George Eliot" first set the fashion of adopting a male disguise, her example has been followed by numerous women writers. It is a curious fact that the most of these have chosen either "George" or "John" as the male patronymic to conceal their identities. Among those best known have been "George Paston," "George Fleming," "George Egerton," "John Oliver Hobbes," and "John Strange Winter."

4 MINUTE MEN WILL REMAIN IN HARNESS

home on furlough after fourteen months service with the American Expeditionary forces was the last speaker on the program and he regaled his hearers with his impressions and understanding of France and the French people after more than one year's close association. He paid the finest tribute to the Frenchman as a soldier and said that without America's help the Frenchman would have fought on unconquered for a million years or so long as a single one remained to fight. He touched briefly on the great work done by America and gave a brief recital of a personal experience when a German high explosive dropped down on their kitchen about the time dinner was ready to be served.

He said he was most agreeably surprised on coming home from France at the splendid spirit which animated all the American people. The boys over there were afraid the home folk would not understand the great problem of the war, being so far removed from the actual conflict, but he found that he had simply come from one front to another. It was most encouraging and heartening and his final word was to "carry on" a little while longer.

Comrade James Minds, of Ramey, President of Selective Service board for District No. 2 then delivered a touching memorial poem of his own composition, dedicated to the boys who gave their lives in the struggle and following benediction by Rev. C. W. Baker the assemblage dismissed.

FOND OF HIS FRIENDS

LONDON, Nov. 8. (By Mail.)—For steadiness of nerve and concentration of purpose it is impossible to beat the flying men.

An airplane designer was flying as observer in one of his own machines in order to have personal experience of its working. He was many thousands of feet high when he saw that a couple of wires had broken loose and were swinging in the wind.

He got up, took out his camera, and photographed the flapping wires.

Afterwards he explained: "I thought if we crashed and were killed the camera's record would tell my friends what had happened."

Of the men now sitting in the United States senate 25 have served as governors of their respective States.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

At Curwensville, at an early date, a number of pioneers were called upon on one occasion to assist in raising a house for one of their number. As the topmost logs were about to be placed upon the skids a messenger arrived in great haste with tidings that the father of two of the assisting men was dying. "For heaven's sake come quick," was the exhortation. "Well, said one of the brothers, I guess we will put up these logs and have supper first, a man must be most d——d sick before he dies in Clearfield county." The father pulled through all right and outlived both of his two sons. Many instances along this line were characteristic among the hardy pioneers of the early day, and it required a little something out of the ordinary to start a panic among them.

A few words relative to the Grand Army of the Republic, which is fast becoming extinct, will not be amiss at this time and will be read with interest by the sons and grandsons of those soldier men who were found in its ranks until death has depleted the membership so rapidly that many Posts that were in existence several years ago, are past and the charters forever closed. John Kratzer Post, organized in Curwensville in 1880 with over fifty members and kept regular meetings for years, now seldom ever meets, from the fact that those who once composed its force have answered the last bugle call and passed to their reward beyond. A dozen men will no doubt cover the roster at the present time and when a comrade was carried to the hill a few weeks ago only four sorrowing comrades could be mustered to follow his remains to their last earthly resting place, and year by year their number is being lessened until it will be only a short time until not one of those warriors will be left to keep the camp fires burning. Unlike some other secret societies the G. A. R. has an originality instanced by its members, which is made up from the soldiery of the Civil war, and is therefore in a large measure exclusive. Although soldiers had before banded together for various purposes the Grand Army is the only society of soldiers which has attained a position worthy of classification as an order. Of orders it is also the most notable distinctly American organization. Brought into existence at the close of the rebellion it spread over all of our states and territories and in Pennsylvania alone almost three hundred Posts, embracing a membership of over two hundred thousand comrades existed in 1882. The secrecy of the Grand Army is also analogious to that of other orders and hence does not require amplification. In view of the fact that this order has been mentioned as a political factor in gubernatorial campaigns, year after year, the following rule of the order will reveal the fallacy of the assumption. "No officer or comrade o fthe Grand Army of the Republic shall in any way use this organization for partisan purposes, and no discussion of partisan questions shall be permitted at any of its meetings, nor shall any nomination for political office be made." A relief fund for the assistance of needy soldiers, sailors, and marines and widows and orphans of deceased soldiers, sailors and marines is a feature of the order's organization. John Kratzer Post No. 184, was mustered in July 3d, 1880, by Mustering Officer James Hale, of Philipsburg. The first list of officers was composed of E. A. Irvin, commander; T. J. Robison, senior-vice commander; H. T. Smith, junior-vice commander; J. H. Norris, adjutant; J. A. Maxwell, surgeon; H. L. Caldwell, chaplain; G. L. Way, officer of the day; Seymor Ross, officer of the guard; Joseph L. Dale, sergeant major; R. J. Bard, quartermaster sergeant.

Once again another year has rolled around and brings us up to another Thanksgiving day tomorrow and the question arises with many of us "what have we got to be thankful for?" Every individual in this community great or small ought to search his or her memory tomorrow for something to praise God for in unison with their [illegible] the past year. Some can return thanks to their creator for prospering them in a financial way, others for their good health and the [illegible] furnished them by which they have been enabled to keep [illegible]. There is not a man, woman or child in Curwensville but what can find something to be thankful for on this day of national Thanksgiving. Sorrow has come to [illegible] families, ties have been broken by death but "time will heal all wounds" made by Him who doeth all things for his children's own good. At the present time, the town is undergoing an epidemic which may, ere it is eradicated from our midst, cause great sorrow among the people, yet looking backward over the year's events Curwensville has been doubly blessed and favored when compared with other towns. Yet will the people suspend their various labors tomorrow long enough to return thanks by song and scripture service for all blessings showered upon them during the year past. There will probably be no public church services held tomorrow on account of the strict quarantine, but that will not hinder families from gathering around the family altar and offer up to God praise and thanksgiving for many blessings that he has meted out to them. Let us all then give an hour to God tomorrow by worshipping Him in a true Puritan way and resolve to give to Him more of ourselves in the future than in the past.

The latest news from Lumber City and Grampian is that those two towns which suffered so severely from the Spanish infiuenza scourge, is about free from the epidemic and business has resumed its normal state once more. Those two towns were certainly hard hit more so than any other towns in this end of the county. The residents of both places will certainly be able to give sincere thanks tomorrow for their deliverance from the disease.

In looking over some paper files this week of the Clearfield County Times the first paper printed in Curwensville—September, 1872—and renumerating back to those who assisted in printing and editing the first number we find that every one has passed into the great beyond. Those who did the work typographically and editorially were T. J. Robison, Ed. Livingston, Dr. Maxwell, W. C. Arnold, Jack and Alex Irvin, Jack Stahl, a man teaching school here at the time by the name of Spackman with Bird Robinson filling the exalted position as devil. The paper was printed in a room in the old M. E. church building above the Jenkins store. These parties conducted the paper for about six months and then the paper ceased to exist until one R. H. Brainard wandered in here from Beloit, Wis., and purchased the material from the stockholders. J. P. Bard was the last editor of the old times and he conducted it one year under the name of Herald, printing the history of the Bucktail regiment.

Mrs. Charles L. Frank, of Patton, is visiting her mother Mrs. Catherine Thompson on north Thompson street. Mrs. Frank makes her home with her daughter Mrs. Katherine Cowher. The family were former residents of Curwensville.

Mr. Laye manager of the Bickford store company, accompanied by Mrs. Laye went to Lock Haven Tuesday and will spend Thanksgiving day among friends. Both expect to return by Saturday.

A small child in the family of John Fasolli residing on Filbert street, died yesterday afternoon from influenza. The child had been suffering for several days from the disease but no doctor had been called until a short time before death came and relieved the little sufferer.

William Hoden who has been assisting James Smith with his undertaking bsuiness for a year or more, resigred his position last Saturday. He has not, as yet, decided just where he will go, having had several situations offered to him in the same line of business he was following.

The rooms at the Emergency hospital have become so crowded with new cases of the flu that the management has decided to equip another room. A number of new cases were admitted to the institution yesterday some of them of quite a serious nature. Some half dozen were released yesterday.

The writer was informed yesterday that owing to a depression of new orders the five day plant at Stronach has cut down work to three days a week. Owing to making some necessary repairs the Curwensville plant will run but five days per week for a short time.

Frank Traister foreman at the P. H. & L. finishing tarnery met with a painful accident Monday evening. H. was out in his chicken coop doing some repair work on the [illegible] door. In descending a stairway his feet slipped from under him and he fell head first to the bottom alighting on head and shoulders. His shoulder was injured badly, besides his face an head badly cut and [illegible] his lower limbs also came in for their share of cuts and bruises. He was pretty badly [illegible] up [illegible] to resume work today.

William Taylor employed at the soft clay mines met with an accident the latter part of last week which will prevent his working for a week or more at least. He was coming out of the mines riding on a loaded car. Something went wrong which caused the car to leave the rails throwing Mr. Taylor across the iron ties with such force as to almost dislocate his right shoulder. He received a number of other minor bruises about the body and limbs which gives him considerable trouble in getting about as spry as he would like. He thinks with proper care of himself however he will be able to return to work by the first of next week.

Dr. A. F. Schlappi who was called to the bedside of his brother Dr. W. H. Schlappi at Fulton N. Y., last week returned to his home in this place today. His brother died shortly after the doctor arrived at his bedside. He was aged 40 years and is survived by an aged father and mother, who reside in Sioux City, Ia., and one brother, Dr. A. F. Schlappi, of Curwensville. The deceased was a man of high character and unusual ability in his profession.

PLANS LONG RANKS OF TREES TO HONOR DEAD

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A nation-wide movement has been started by the American Forestry association for the planting of memorial trees for the soldier dead.

Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association, has written to every governor, asking cooperation. The plan is to have each state plant memorial trees along the great trans-continental motor highways.

P. S. Ridsdale, secretary of the association, says many towns and cities have taken up the idea and the General Federation of Women's Clubs is considering a similar plan for the Lincoln highway to be carried out by the state organizations.

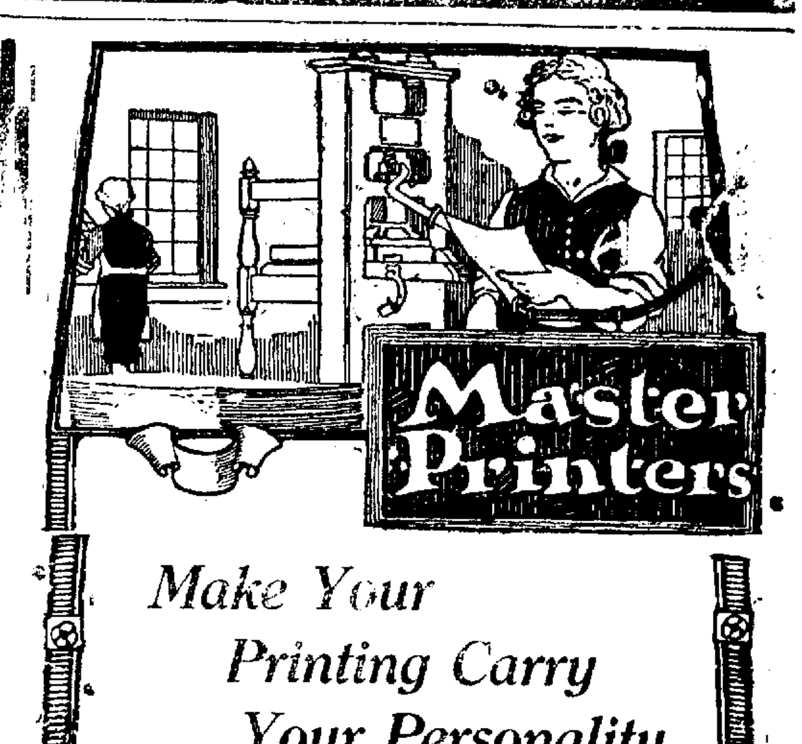

"Nothing could be more appropriate," says Mr. Pack, "than to have each state, through which a motor highway passes, plant 'victory oaks' or 'victory elms' or other trees, for her soldiers who have died in battle. The motor has played a mighty part in winning the war.

"Wood has played a big part in victory too. Our stocks must be replenished. With each state cooperating with the highway authorities, a living age-long lesson could be taught the coming generations as to the beauties and value of forestry."

PEACE ADDS TO U. S. FOOD TASK

Europe Needs Nearly Double Last Year's Supplies From America.

ECONOMY MUST CONTINUE.

With the return of peace America is confronted by a food problem even harder of solution than that with which we coped in time of war. We have an entirely new world situation in food. It will mean essential changes in our domestic program. But more important than this we must of necessity require increased export

Last year we shipped 11 820 000 tons of foodstuffs to the European Allies. Had the war continued we would have increased this enormous figure to 17, 550 000 tons in the present year. Now, with the responsibility of feeding millions of people liberated from the German yoke, our exports must be brought up to at least 20 000 000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports

World Food Demand Increased.

The end of the war will create an enormously increased demand for food. Humanity demands that the starving millions freed from Prussian oppression shall have sufficient supplies to assure their return to health and prosperity. If these liberated nations are faced with starvation they cannot establish orderly governments. Hunger breeds anarchy in a people. The war to free the world for democracy will be lost after it has been won. America must continue its work to liberation and by sharing its food make democracy safe in the world

In order to meet this new situation the Food Administration has made a careful survey of the food resources of the whole world in relation to the total demands. Computing supplies on the basis of the avoidance of waste and war consumption, it is found that wheat and rye may be obtained in sufficient quantities to meet economical world consumption, high protein feed for dairy animals will show a shortage of about 3 000 000 tons while there will be sufficient supplies of other feeds to allow economical consumption, beans peas and rice will also be found in sufficient quantities to maintain economy in consumption, there are sufficient supplies of beef to keep pace with the capacity of refrigerating space

Great Fat Shortage.

The most distinct reversal of policy will come with pork and dairy products, vegetable oils, sugar and coffee. Utmost economy will be required in the use of fats and oils, in which there is a world shortage of about 3 000 000, 000 pounds. There are sufficient supplies for us to return to our normal sugar consumption if other nations continue their present short rations, or even if their rations are slightly increased. If the European countries, however are to resume their normal sugar consumption it will be through our continued conservation in order to share with them. There is a surplus of coffee

Of the world total required to produce these results North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States including the West Indies will be in a position to furnish a total of about 20 000 000 tons—against our pre war exports of about 6 000 000 tons

The bread grains situation allows the world to abandon the use of substitutes in wheat bread. Large supplies have accumulated in the Argentine, Australia and other hitherto inaccessible markets. A continued high milling percentage, economy of consumption and elimination of waste make it possible for the world to return to a white wheat loaf

Of all our export possibilities in fats, the largest and most important item is pork. While we cannot supply the world deficiency we will be able to help it enormously because of the past policies of stimulating production and restraining consumption. The government's policy with regard to stimulating the production of wheat and of pork, the readiest source of fats is thus amply justified by the situation upon the return of peace

Famine Specter Still Stalks

The people of the United States must continue care and wise economy in the use of food in order to complete the work of liberating the world. But even with the utmost conservation and production in this country there will be in Europe for the next year or more starvation beyond all human power to [illegible]. In North Russia there are 40 000 000 people to whom food cannot be made accessible this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy. And even if internal transportation [illegible] would soon [illegible]. Millions [illegible] have [illegible] of war will [illegible]

Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen Eighteen Most Remarkable and Momentous National Occasion

For this store to properly express itself, and to give full meaning, and a full definition of what Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen-Eighteen, means to the people of the United States, is, we believe, a very difficult task.

Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen-Eighteen, is so totally different from any Thanksgiving we have celebrated in the past fifty years, that is is truly a day worthy of careful, serious thoughts, and a day in which to render thanks to God that the day on which the war ended has passed.

And we think then that the occasion for the ending of the war is truly an excellent reason for celebrating Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen-Eighteen, in a most glorious manner.

Yes, we have very, very much to be thankful for.

Let us be thankful too, equally as much—that the ravages and sorrows, miseries, bloodshed and the ruin of this unspeakable war have been spared to the fair land of America.

Let us be thankful that we Americans have the grit, the ability and the efficiency to demonstrate unto the world that although we are a peace-loving people, we were able to build, in the short space of one year, or possibly less than one year, a military organization, with all the attendant steel and munitions-making and the buidling of ships in a manner that has startled the world. We have proved, as if it were a message to all mankind, to all the world, that would be an uprising of both men and women, to an extent never before dreamed of—they would rise phoenix-like one hundred million strong over-night, ready to sacrifice and die that this Government of the people and by the people shall never perish from the earth.

And so let us be thankful and give thanks unto God on this Thanksgiving Day, formally set aside by the President of the United States as a national day of thanksgiving.

As usual this store will be closed all day Thanksgiving Day. Will close at 6 P. M. Wednesday.

The Spirit of the First Thanksgiving Renews Itself After Three Hundred Years

When our Pilgrim forefathers made their devout prayers of Thanksgiving on that bleak bit of New England coast nearly three hundred years ago, they felt that they had at last reached a place in their history when they had achieved a great victory for themselves, little knowing that they were sowing the first seeds which would develop into this great and glorious nation.

Now, after this intervening three hundred years, we again have reason to offer up our most devout thanks that a great victory has been gained and that we and our Allies have sown seeds that will grow into a tree whose wide spreading branches will protect the smaller nations of the earth and make this a far better world for us and down thru posterity

TAKE UP W. S. S. CAMPAIGN

The banquet of the Four Minute Men and War Workers held at The Dimeling last evening was one of the most satisfactory functions held in Clearfield in a long time and those responsibe for the gathering are deserving of every praise. The men who do things in almost every community in the county were present and when one looked into their faces and listened to the earnest remarks of the assigned speakers he realized almost unconsciously and instantly why every war activity went through with a whoop and hurrah in old Cleanfield county.

All told there were present 86 representatives of the business and professional ranks of the county. Hon. Joseph E. Phillips, chairman of the Speakers' Bureau of the Four Minute Men and one of Clearfield county's most indefatigable war workers presided. The genial Joseph was at home in the position and added much to the success of the occasion by his expert handling of the talent available.

Mine Host McGinnis provided a tasty and appetizing repast which was summarily dealt with after which the deck was cleared for action, cigars were lighted and at the signal from the Toastmaster the "feast of reason and flow of soul" was on. Then for two hours or more the assembled diners were regaled by the different speakers with words of commendation for willing, loyal, patriotic assistance and past achievements, with words of wisdom, caution and prophecy relating to the momentous period now at haod, the solution of the problems on which will largely depend on the organization of Four Minute Men and kindred organizations throughout the nation.

Toastmaster Phillips in his introduction read a telegram from B. H. Ludlow, Esq., associate state director of the Four Minute Men, in which the latter gentleman paid high tribute to the work done in Clearfield county.

Mr. Phillips then introduced H. B. Powell, President of the County National bank and the acknowledged dean of Clearfield county bankers, to whom had been assigned the subject "Liberty Loans: Past and Future." Mr. Powell told of the great work accomplished in our district and paid glowing tribute to the patriotic people of the county who accomplished the seemingly impossible in the matter of their great liberality to their government. He spoke of the wonderful resources of our section and mentioned the fact that unlike many other industrial centres Clearfield county produced within her own boundaries the raw materials entering into the products which have made us famous. He expressed himself as being more than proud of the fact that Clearfield county people loaned their government more than one million dollars per month during the past fifteen months He closed by thanking the Four Minute Men for their assistance and for the pleasure their association had given him.

Hobart Callahan, the energetic county chairman of the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, was the next speaker. Chairman Callahan told of some of the work of the campaign and thanked those present for their loyal support. He presented the following statement, showing the result by districts.

Walter Welch was assigned to speak of "The War Savings Campaign". Mr. Welch who is chairman of that committee, asked for the cooperation of the Four Minute Men in this work as it was the only war activity in which our county lagged behind.

Dr. E. C. Reeve made a strong plea for the United War Fund campaign and eloquently urged the great need for the assistance of the different welfare organizations to the boys over there during the reconstruction period when time will hank heavy upon the hands of the soldier released from war's engrossing excitement and subject to double or treble the temptations of war days.

President R. L. Sommerville of the Selective Service board for District No. 1 talked on "Selective Service" and intelligently outlined to his hearers the lessons learned in the selective service work. He spoke very highly of the young men of Clearfield county and said their patriotism and loyalty was equal to every test. Out of seven thousand registered men in District No. 1 there were less than one hundred delinquents and not over ten per cent of these were purposely so. The enemy alien and the yellow streak was so small as to be almost negligible. Men of every nationality in Clearfield county had come out of the "melting pot" perfectly assimilated all were intensely American. He said the selective service boards had inducted more than three thousand men into the different branches of the service and the records available showed about an equal number of voluntary enlistments.

"National Defense Activities" was the subject assigned Secretary John M. Bain, of the County Commttee of National Defense. Mr. Bain handled the same in his usual capable manner and furnished much food for thought.

Father E. J. Fisher, of Morrisdale, was called upon to speak of "The Ideal Four Minute Man". His introduction by the Toastmaster left no doubt in the minds of the banqueters as to who was an Ideal Four Minute Man and when the gtnial reverend gentleman got under way he demonstrated why the campaign was so successful in his sub-district. He made a happly little speech and drove home some telling points in his plea for unity and a continuation of the organization.

"Americanization: The Problem Facing Us", was handled by Chairman Woodward of the Public Safety committee in his usual highly capable and entertaining manner. Mr Woodward devoted himself to a common sense discourse on the needs of the hour, pointed out the dangers confronting Europe today and made a plea for the earnest cooperation of the Four Minute Men and all other loyal American citizens to combat the spirit of unrest throughout the world.

G. A. Stewart of The Progress was called upon to talk on "Newspapers and Publicity in War Times" and gave the assembled banqueters a newspaperman's idea not only as to what the newspapers should do but what they did do in the trying times now nearing a close.

A. V. Dively, Esq., of Altoona, chairman of the Four Minute Men of Blair county, an invited guest at the banquet, gave his experiences in war work in our neighboring county. Mr. Dively is a polished orator and gave his audience an old-fashioned American idea of the necessities of the hour and the way to meet the troublesome questions.

"Military History for Clearfield County and Fitting Memorial to Men in the Service" was intelligently discussed by Hon. J. Frank Snyder who offered the suggestion that a suitable memorial be created or erected to perpetuate the memory of Clearfield county soldiers in all the wars of the nation and following his remarks on motion of H. B. Powell, Mr. Snyder, M. J. McCreight, of DuBois and Amos Rumberger of Houtzdale, were appointed a committee to take up the matter and work out a satisfactory solution at an early dare.

FOUR OF U. S. PEACE COMMISSION HAVE BEEN DECIDED UPON

WASHINGTON Nov. 27.—Four of the peace commissioners have been definitely decided upon, it was authoritatively stated today. They are President Wilson, Col. House, Secretary Lansing, and ex-Ambassacor Henry White, the Republican representative. There probably will be one more cabinet member. Secretary Baker who was to have gone finds he is unable to leave now owing to the preesntation of the army bill to the forthcoming Congress. Apparently the President has not decided whether Secretary Daniels or Huston will take Baker's place. If there are to be any more than five it was not indicated by officials close to the President.

SITUATION CALM IN GERMANY TODAY

By ED. L. KEEN

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The situation in Germany apparently is calm the country is not yet safe from Bolshevikism. The decisive attitude of Kurt Eisner, President of the Bavarian Republic, is unifying anti-Bolshevik sentiment throughout Germany Right now he is probably the strongest man in the whole country. His adherents have made it plain they will not stand any nonsense and have issued a warning to von Hindeburg to keep out of politics. On the other hand it is reported that there are 70,000 armed soldiers in Berlin over whom Carl Liebnecht, self styled Bolsheviki, is trying to get control in order to start a counter revolution. Posters have been distributed in Coolgne offering $25 reward for the former Kaiser and the Crown Prince, "dead or alive".

WAR BOND RESTRICTIONS REMOVED ON PAPER INDUSTRY.

Washington, Nov. 27—All restrictions affecting the publishers of periodicals have been rescinded except on daily, Sunday and weekly newspapers, the war industries board announced today. Restrictions were not lifted on daily, Sunday and weekly newspapers it was explained, because newspaper publishers requested that the board continue to exercise control over the use of news print for the present. However, restrictions on weekly papers will be lifted December 1. Restrictions covering the manufacture of wall paper the making of wall paper and designs also were lifted.

NEW MILLPORT BOY MISSING

Kenzie A. Sloppy,
New Millport, Pa..

Deeply regret to inform you that Private Ivan K. Sloppy, infantry, is officially reported missing in action since October 10. Will report first information received.

HARRIS
Adj. Gen.

Ivan K. Sloppy and brother Guy D. Sloppy entered the service in April, Guy being in the 17th cavalry at Douglass while Ivan was placed in Co M, 319 Inf. landing in France on Memorial Day. He has been in all the big drives made by this remarkable regiment in their never ceasing drive for Liberty. Hopes are entertained that this young man is yet living and that he may be safely returned to his loved ones at home.

BRITISH TO ENTERTAIN GOBS TOMORROW

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The British admiralty has notified all naval forces to entertain the crews of American vessels stationed there on Thanksgiving Day. In London American sailors will dine at Albert Hall. Special services will be held in the churches in which the Allied ambassadors will participate.

KAISER'S REFUGE IS NOT SO SAFE

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 27. (Delayed.)—The Dutch Premier speaking in the Chamber today said that "the moment the Kaiser's presence is dangerous to Holland" he will have to leave.

Edward Payne of Philadelphia, is the guest of his sister Mrs. D. W. McCleary on Cherry street at present.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 21. (Delayed.)—"I hope that when peace is signed America will remember that she and Germany were once friendly," Frederick Wilhelm, former German Crown Prince, declared in an interview with the United Press today.

The correspondent traveled with the former Crown Prince from Swaelmen Castle to Weringen where he was interned this afternoon. He appeared to be in good health, smiled frequently and wore a sportsman's suit of brown tweeds. He was accompanied by two majors. He rode in a first class compartment but it was unheated.

The former Crown Prince talked with the correspondent at a time when the former was temporarily alone. "I am unable to make any formal statement as my mouth has been closed by orders. I do not know how long I will be in Holland where I am accorded nice treatment. My future depends upon the revolution. I hope I will see Germany again but I must be patient. My knowledge of events is only thru the newspapers. I haven't seen my family for weeks even my father, who I am told also lives in Holland. I have not heard anything regarding my wife, my children or any friends but have I any friends left? I hope that when peace is signed America will remember that he and Germany were once friendly. That is all I can say."

The former Crown Prince was flusnt regarding the food question. "Food in Holland is good but I eat very little," he said. "I wish to retain my slender sportsman-like figure and I can't afford to get fat."

The former Crown Prince expects to indulge in skating. Wieringen is a small island. A rented parsonage is the only good house. Frederick Wilhelm ordered a piano and a billiard table. Here he expects to dictate his war memoirs. He terminated his interview with the correspondent by saying "greet America for me".

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Union Thanksgiving service will be held in Trinity Methodist church Thursday, November, 28 at ten o'clock sharp. The sermon will be reached by Rev. C. W. Baker, of the Lutheran church. The offering will be for the hospital. We have unusual cause for Thanksgiving this year. Our Heavenly Father has been very good to us. Let all the people assemble at the appointed place of worship and lift a song of praise to the giver of all good for His wonderful and tender mercies to the children of men.

MARRIED

Saturday, November 23, 1918 at 7:00 p. m. at home of S. R. Leonard in Bloom township, Clearfiled county, in presence of a few friends and relatives, Stanley Freeman, of Grampian and Irene Leonard, of Bloom township. The ring ceremony of the M. E. church was used, Rev. W. R. Jones, officiating.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

The Dimeling Hotel will serve their Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow from 12:30 to 2 P. M.

MORE HONORS FOR COL. FRED B. KERR

The work of the engineers with the American Expeditionary Forces in France has been the wonder of the world and the great accomplishmen of this hardworking branch of our army had a very great deal to do with the signal and final triumph of allied arms.

That being so, it is doubly gratifying to Clearfied and Clearfield county eope to know that one of our townsmen, Col. Fred B. Kerr has been the directing head of one of the biggest and best units in those engineering forces.

According to the press dispatches of Monday last Col. Kerr's 23d Engineers were entrusted with the restoring of the railroad line between Verdun and Metz, the road over which the entire supplies of the American First army are transported. The boche devoted four years to putting this railroad out of business and so well did he do his work that nine miles of the roadbed and territory it traversed had been literally blown away. The ten thousand members of the 23d no doubt have the road in shape for traffic now.

Col. Kerr has made a great record since going to France and some time before hostilities ended was made Chief Engineer of Roads for the American First army, a position of great responsibility which he won on his merits.

THE FLU SITUATION

There were ten new cases of influeiza reported up to 3 o'clock today with two doctors to hear from. There are 38 patients in the emergency hospital. There were four admissions and three discharges today. Mrs. Temple and Mrs. Fred Demi are seriously ill, with two other patients quite sick. The others are doing very well.

ALSACE WELCOMES LIBERATORS WHO ESTABLISH ORDER

By Frank J. Taylor

Strassburg, Nov. 25—Night—Infantry divisions are taking care of the Alsation towns controlled by German soviets. They are handling the situation in a most creditable manner, restoring order, providing food for the people and caring for the refugees.

The Alsatians are delighted with French ideas on constructional occupation. The intermingling of soldiers and civilians are doing more to maintain order than the German forbiddings ever did. The formal entrance of the French military officials today following the actual occupation by the French troops yesterday was enthusiastically hailed by the population. Marshall Petain was accompanied by General Castelnau and General Giraud. Exercises were held and the Marseilles was sung in front of the Kaiser's palace which was decorated with French and allied colors. The whole city joined in the celebration. A week spent with the victorious French army of occupation in Alsace-Lorraine has convinced me that the people are almost unanimously French at heart. The few reaining German soldiers are rapidly leaving Alsace. They are entirely out of Lorraine.

FIFTH LOAN COMING

Washington, Nov. 27—Secretary McAdoo today announced plans "for one more great popular campaign for the sale of bonds" in a letter to all banks made public by the Treasury department. McAdoo outlined the treasury's policy for the next five months embracing a series of bi-weekyl treasury certificate issues in anticipation of the Fifth loan.

WORDS FAIL

Yesterday was indeed a trying day for the local newspaper man. It was a sad duty to be compelled to chronicle the death of such young men as James Young, Harry Delaney and Clarence Rishell, all our valued friends and men in whom we had the greatest faith and confidence. This together with our old friend and radiator of good cheer, Clark Boyer, causes us to cease our labor and wonder in what fitting way we can express our sorrow for their families and our appreciation of their friendship.

NOW, ALL TOGETHER!

Reconstruction problems are not alone for the solution of men at Washington, or in New York, or in Europe. Every person in the big city or the remote hamlet, can do his share. The returned soldiers will go back to their homes on the farms, and in the mountains, as well as to homes in the cities. Most of these men will find occupations for themselves. In fact, after the strenuous life they have led, it is a safe guess that the stay-at-homes will have a busy time meeting the competition of the men who have been "over there". But there will be cases of unfortunates who have been crippled, or who have never been trained for anything but the most common labor. Some of these will need help—not charity, nor support, but a friendly aid in getting started again. It will be comparatively easy to help these men along, but everyone must make it his business to add his assistance when opportunity offers. It will be a misfortune to the men themselves if the people of the country look upon them as subjects for coddling or charity. With few exceptions, they will not so regard themselves, unless gradually induced to do so by thoughtless emotionalists. Under the selective draft law they were taken out of civil occupations and put into the army and navy. By the exercise of such measures as may be practicable they should be placed back in civil occupations by selection. Except in cases where their working powers have been impaired, they will then take care of themselves. The selective process of getting them back into private industry is the important step in the reconstruction program. Let everybody help.

A NEW NAME

There is something in a name. Bolsheviki is a name that one cannot forget. It sounds forceful and indicates action in its pronounciation. Originally Russian it bids fair to become an international institution. The very name itself will draw unsuspecting discontents to its doors. Many a man is a potential member of the Bolsheviki today and does not realize it. In the small army of discontents that we have today and in the greater army of discontents that we are bound to have in the near future there will be thousands of men willing to turn to whatever ism promises them most and for promises and radical ideals the Bolsheviki has the oil stock salesman nailed to the wall.

The Bolsheviki might have started out with high ideals and the best of intentions but it has become the haven and refuge of anarchists and vandals. While there is no active branch of the organization in this country it is safe to predict that the organizers will within a short time be among us and that a small percentage of our population will blindly and unsuspectingly enlist under its treason stained banner. It is the arch enemy of patriotism and the loyal citizens of Clearfield County can well turn their watchful eyes on the horizon to nip in the bud the first manifestation of its appearance here. The thing, the creed and the name itself are things to be shunned and not countenanced.

Keep Up The Thrift Habit

The purchase of Liberty Loan Bonds has taught the habit of Thrift to a great many Americans.

Now the fight is over, it is just as important for our own sakes, to be thrifty, as it has been during the War for the benefit of our Government.

You have saved to buy Liberty Bonds. There are many other excellent bonds, whose safety is unquestioned, on the market. When the Government no longer needs to borrow your savings, don't forget your habit of Thrift. Keep on saving and buying bonds.

Let us advise you.

ALLIES ARE FED BY SELF DENIAL

Generous Doing Without in America Supplied Food to Europe.

Experts from this country since it entered the war have kept starvation from Allied Europe and have maintained the health and strength of those who have been bearing the brunt of our battles, so that they could hold out to victory. Now that hostilities have ceased we must assume the added burden of keeping starvation from increasing its toll upon the millions who have been liberated from the Prussian yoke. Famine would undo the work which has been accomplished in freeing the world for democracy. No stable government can be established and maintained by a nation harassed by hunger. A starving people turns to rioting and anarchy. Food has given strength and courage to the nations fighting for democracy; it must now give the nations strength and tranquility to reestablish themselves in freedom and democracy.

Without our help it would have been absolutely impossible for the Allies to maintain a living ration. Since our entry into the war we have been contributing largely to the support of one hundred and twenty million people whose normal food supplies have been cut off, whose production has fallen almost to the vanishing point, whose fields have been devastated by Germany. The food exported from the United States in the past year has been sufficient to supply the complete ration of twenty-two million people.

It is hard to grasp the magnitude and significance of the assistance which has been lent the Allies by the patriotic, voluntary service of the American people. The food we sent abroad last year would have been sufficient to feed one-fifth of our population. And this was done in spite of the fact that we entered the year with short crops. Our surplus was practically nothing. An overwhelming proportion of the food that left this country last year was saved out of the normal home consumption of our own people.

In spite of difficulties met in internal transportation and shortage of ocean tonnage our food exports last year amounted to a figure that a few years ago would have been unbelievable. Even the most optimistic element of our population faced with anxious consternation the prospect which opened before us with the beginning of the 1917 harvest year.

The American people have not been compelled to save. They have been appealed to on the basis of humanity and of patriotism. They have responded voluntarily.

Miss Grayce L. Mackie, who is located in Washington, D. C. arrived home on the morning express, having been called here on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. William Clark, who is suffering from the flu.

SUFFICIENT SUPPLY NOW.

All the Nations Will Be Able to Return to Their Normal Supply of White Bread.

Overshadowing all other accomplishments of the American people under the leadership of Food Administration is the history of wheat exports in the past sixteen months. Our wheat export program proved conclusively to the world that America was in this war from start to finish and willing to make any sacrifice that will hasten victory or maintain the health and strength of people overseas, upon whom rested the heaviest weight of our war.

Now that pressure on ocean tonnage is eased by the stopping of large movements of troops to Europe, we may relax our efforts to save wheat. The accumulated surplus in Australia, Argentine and other hitherto inaccessible markets will become available, and probably no more than our normal surplus will have to leave this country. We in America and the nations which have won the world for freedom will be enabled to eat their normal wheat loaf at the common table of the peoples of democracy.

We entered the past crop year with a wheat supply which gave us only 20,000,000 bushels available for export. When the crop year ended, we had sent 141,000,000 bushels of wheat to Europe. The American people had saved out of their normal consumption 121,000,000 bushels.

A survey of export figures shows that the conservation of flour brought about by the wheatless meals, wheatless days, substitution in our kitchens and bakeries, enabled us to send to our armies and the allies 33,000,000 barrels of white flour—wheat figured as flour. Had we exported only our visible surplus, we would have been able to ship less than 4,500,000 barrels.

Before the 1st of December our surplus had gone overseas, and an additional 25,000,000 bushels had been taken from the stock reserved for home consumption and added to the surplus already shipped to the allies. It seemed hardly possible that we could bring our total exports above 100,000,000 bushels by July 1. But in January the late Lord Rhondda, then British Food Controller, cabled that unless we could send an additional 75,000,000 bushels he could not take responsibility for assuring his people that they would be fed. The American people responded by sending 85,000,000 bushels of wheat, saved from their home consumption, between the first of the year and the advent of the new crop.

By October 10, 1918, we had already shipped 65,930,307 bushels since July 1. Absolutely the only limitation upon our wheat exports since the latest harvest has been the scarcity of ocean tonnage. If exports continue at the present rate, by July 1 of next year we will have sent more than 237,500,000 bushels to Europe.

Thus are we making good America's pledge that the bread rations of Allied Europe shall be maintained.

Eighty millions of acres cannot be taken out of production for four years without heavy losses of yield. It will be years before their fields recuperate, farms are restored and herds replenished. Save food.

MANY LIKE THIS IN CLEARFIELD

Similar Cases Being Published in Each Issue

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Clearfield. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

William Arthurs, carpenter 31? Merrill street, Clearfield says: "I have been troubled by pains across the small of my back and over my kidneys. I have had this trouble especially in the winter when the weather has been severe and I think it has been due to colds settling in my back and kidneys. Pains have caught me when I have stooped over and frequently have extended into my shoulders and hips. When one of these attacks have come on, I have used Doan's Kidney pills and they have eased the pains through my back."

Thanksgiving---The Day Takes On A New Meaning This Year

This nation has undergone a wondrous change during the year that has intervened since we last celebrated the day.

Therefore let us observe the day in its true spirit and feel glad that we are citizens of the greatest nation of the earth and not forgetting that herein lies a great responsibility.

To enable our employees to keep the holiday in a befitting manner this store will be closed all day tomorrow.

HAPPY SOLUTION PRAYED FOR

The case of Chester Arnold Millberg of Glen Richey, appears to be similar to that of Harry Souders and his parents and friends are earnestly hoping that the war department is in error in announcing the young man's death.

The young man is with the American Expeditionary forces in France and last week Mrs. Milberg was advised by the war department that her son had been officially reported as killed in action on October 8th last.

Several days pervious to the arrival of this o cial notification Mrs. Millberg received a letter from Chester dated October 23d, fifteen days after he was supposed to have been killed. The letter was written from a base hospital in France and said he was getting along finely.

The war department has been notified and is now investigating the matter, but it appears beyond question that the young soldier is alive and well.

BURIED AT BURNSIDE

Mrs. Elizabeth Stauffer Armstrong died at her home in Brockwayville on Friday November 22d, 1918 of influenza, after a brief illness, aged about 35 years. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Stauffer of Burnside, and a sister of Paul Stauffer of Clearfield. She is survived by her husband and two sons.

The remains were taken to Burnside for internment.

It takes fifty pounds of parafin candles to provide as much light as 1000 cubic feet of illuminating gas.

Since "George Eliot" first set the fashion of adopting a male disguise, her example has been followed by numerous women writers. It is a curious fact that the most of these have chosen either "George" or "John" as the male patronymic to conceal their identities. Among those best known have been "George Paston," "George Fleming," "George Egerton," "John Oliver Hobbes," and "John Strange Winter."

home on furlough after fourteen months service with the American Expeditionary forces was the last speaker on the program and he regaled his hearers with his impressions and understanding of France and the French people after more than one year's close association. He paid the finest tribute to the Frenchman as a soldier and said that without America's help the Frenchman would have fought on unconquered for a million years or so long as a single one remained to fight. He touched briefly on the great work done by America and gave a brief recital of a personal experience when a German high explosive dropped down on their kitchen about the time dinner was ready to be served.

He said he was most agreeably surprised on coming home from France at the splendid spirit which animated all the American people. The boys over there were afraid the home folk would not understand the great problem of the war, being so far removed from the actual conflict, but he found that he had simply come from one front to another.' It was most encouraging and heartening and his final word was to "carry on" a little while longer.

Comrade James Minds, of Ramey, President of Selective Service board for District No. 2 then delivered a touching memorial poem of his own composition, dedicated to the boys who gave their lives in the struggle and following benediction by Rev. C. W. Baker the assemblage dismissed.

FOND OF HIS FRIENDS

LONDON, Nov. 8. (By Mail.)—For steadiness of nerve and concentration of purpose it is impossible to beat the flying men.

An airplane designer was flying as observer in one of his own machines in order to have personal experience of its working. He was many thousands of feet high when he saw that a couple of wires had broken loose and were swinging in the wind.

He got up, took out his camera, and photographed the flapping wires.

Afterwards he explained: "I thought if we crashed and were killed the camera's record would tell my friends what had happened."

Of the men now sitting in the United States senate 23 have served as governors of their respective States.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

At Curwensville, at an early date, a number of pioneers were called upon on one occasion to assist in raising a house for one of their number. As the topmost logs were about to be placed upon the skids a messenger arrived in great haste with tidings that the father of two of the assisting men was dying. "For heaven's sake come quick," was the exhortation. "Well, said one of the brothers, I guess we will put up these logs and have supper first, a man must be most d——d sick before he dies in Clearfield county." The father pulled through all right and outlived both of his two sons. Many instances along this line were characteristic among the hardy pioneers of the early day, and it required a little something out of the ordinary to start a panic among them.

A few words relative to the Grand Army of the Republic, which is fast becoming extinct, will not be amiss at this time and will be read with interest by the sons and grandsons of those soldier men who were found in its ranks until death has depleted the membership so rapidly that many Posts that were in existence several years ago, are past and the charters forever closed. John Kratzer Post, organized in Curwensville in 1880 with over fifty members and kept regular meetings for years, now seldom ever meets, from the fact that those who once composed its force have answered the last bugle call and passed to their reward beyond. A dozen men will no doubt cover the roster at the present time and when a comrade was carried to the hill a few weeks ago only four sorrowing comrades could be mustered to follow his remains to their last earthly resting place, and year by year their number is being lessened until it will be only a short time until not one of those warriors will be left to keep the camp fires burning. Unlike some other secret societies the G. A. R. has an originality instanced by its members, which is made up from the soldiery of the Civil war, and is therefore in a large measure exclusive. Although soldiers had before banded together for various purposes the Grand Army is the only society of soldiers which has attained a position worthy of classification as an order. Of orders it is also the most notable distinctly American organization. Brought into existence at the close of the rebellion it spread over all of our states and territories and in Pennsylvania alone almost three hundred Posts, embracing a membership of over two hundred thousand comrades existed in 1882. The secrecy of the Grand Army is also analogious to that of other orders and hence does not require amplification. In view of the fact that this order has been mentioned as a political factor in gubernatorial campaigns, year after year, the following rule of the order will reveal the fallacy of the assumption. "No officer or comrade o fthe Grand Army of the Republic shall in any way use this organization for partisan purposes, and no discussion of partisan questions shall be permitted at any of its meetings, nor shall any nomination for political office be made." A relief fund for the assistance of needy soldiers, sailors, and marines and widows and orphans of deceased soldiers, sailors and marines is a feature of the order's organization. John Kratzer Post No. 184, was mustered in July 3d, 1880, by Mustering Officer James Hale, of Philipsburg. The first list of officers was composed of E. A. Irvin, commander; T. J. Robison, senior-vice commander; H. T. Smith, junior-vice commander; J. H. Norris, adjutant; J. A. Maxwell, surgeon; H. L. Caldwell, chaplain; G. L. Way, officer of the day; Seymor Ross, officer of the guard; Joseph L. Dale, sergeant major; R. J. Bard, quartermaster sergeant.

Once again another year has rolled around and brings us up to another Thanksgiving day tomorrow and the question arises with many of us "what have we got to be thankful for?" Every individual in this community great or small ought to search his or her memory tomorrow for something to praise God for in unison with their [illegible] during the past year. Some can return thanks to their creator for prospering them in a financial way others for their good health [illegible] furnished them by which they have been enabled to keep [illegible] from want. There is not a man, woman or child in Curwensville but what can find something to be thankful for on this day of national Thanksgiving. Sorrow has come to some [illegible] to others, family ties have been broken by death but "time will heal all wounds" made by Him who doeth all things for his children's own good. At the present time, the town is undergoing an [illegible] which may, ere it is eradicated from our midst, cause great sorrow among the people, yet looking backward over the year's events Curwensville has been doubly blessed and favored when compared with other towns. Yet will the people suspend their various labors tomorrow long enough to return thanks by song and scripture service for all blessings showered upon them during the year past. There will probably be no public church services held tomorrow on account of the strict quarantine, but that will not hinder families from gathering around the family altar and offer up to God praise and thanksgiving for many blessings that he has meted out to them. Let us all then give an hour to God tomorrow by worshipping Him in a true Puritan way and resolve to give to Him more of ourselves in the future than in the past.

The latest news from Lumber City and Grampian is that those two towns which suffered so severely from the Spanish influenza scourge, is about free from the epidemic and business has resumed its normal state once more. Those two towns were certainly hard hit more so than any other towns in this end of the county. The residents of both places will certainly be able to give sincere thanks tomorrow for their deliverance from the disease.

In looking over some paper files this week of the Clearfield County Times the first paper printed in Curwensville—September, 1872—and renumerating back to those who assisted in printing and editing the first number we find that every one has passed into the great beyond. Those who did the work typographically and editorially were T. J. Robison, Ed. Livingston, Dr. Maxwell, W. C. Arnold, Jack and Alex Irvin, Jack Stahl, a man teaching school here at the time by the name of Spackman with Bird Robinson filling the exalted position as devil. The paper was printed in a room in the old M. E. church building above the Jenkins store. These parties conducted the paper for about six months and then the paper ceased to exist until one R. H. Brainard wandered in here from Beloit, Wis., and purchased the material from the stockholders. J. P. Bard was the last editor of the old times and he conducted it one year under the name of Herald, printing the history of the Bucktail regiment.

Mrs. Charles L. Frank, of Patton, is visiting her mother Mrs. Catherine Thompson on north Thompson street. Mrs. Frank makes her home with her daughter Mrs. Katherine Cowher. The family were former residents of Curwensville.

Mr. Laye manager of the Bickford store company, accompanied by Mrs. Laye went to Lock Haven Tuesday and will spend Thanksgiving day among friends. Both expect to return by Saturday.

A small child in the family of John Fasolli residing on Filbert street, died yesterday afternoon from influenza. The child had been suffering for several days from the disease but no doctor had been called until a short time before death came and relieved the little sufferer.

William Hoden who has been assisting James Smith with his undertaking bsuiness for a year or more, resigred his position last Saturday. He has not, as yet, decided just where he will go, having had several situations offered to him in the same line of business he was following.

The rooms at the Emergency hospital have become so crowded with new cases of the flu that the management has decided to equip another room. A number of new cases were admitted to the institution yesterday some of them of quite a serious nature. Some half dozen were released yesterday.

The writer was informed yesterday that owing to a depression of new orders the five day plant at Stronach has cut down work to three days a week. Owing to making some necessary repairs the Curwensville plant will run but five days per week for a short time.

Frank Traister foreman at the P. H. & L. finishing tarnery met with a painful accident Monday evening. He was out in his chicken coop doing some repair work on the [illegible] In descending a stairway [illegible] slipped from under him and he fell head first to the [illegible] head and shoulders. His [illegible] was injured badly [illegible] an head badly cut and [illegible] his lower limbs also came [illegible] share of cuts and bruises. He was pretty badly [illegible] to resume work today.

William Taylor employed at the soft clay mines met with an accident the latter part of last week which will prevent his working for a week or more at least. He was coming out of the mines riding on a loaded car. Something went wrong which caused the car to leave the rails throwing Mr. Taylor across the iron ties with such force as to almost dislocate his rigat shoulder. He received a number of other minor bruises about the body and limbs which gives him considerable trouble in getting about as spry as he would like. He thinks with proper care of himself however he will be able to return to work by the first of next week.

Dr. A. F. Schlappi who was called to the bedside of his brother Dr. W. H. Schlappi at Fulton N. Y., last week returned to his home in this place today. His brother died shortly after the doctor arrived at his bedside. He was aged 40 years and is survived by an aged father and mother, who reside in Sioux City, Ia., and one brother, Dr. A. F. Schlappi, of Curwensville. The deceased was a man of high character and unusual ability in his profession.

Borough white wings had the new sprinkler-sweeper out yesterday washing and cleaning the brick streets up generally.

Mrs. James Spence contemplates spending Thanksgiving Day at Lock Haven in the family of Rev. and Mrs. Parkhill. Rev. Parkhill occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in this place for some months.

The Progress is requested to [illegible] that there will be no [illegible] services in the Presbyterian church on Thursday [illegible] Presbyterian church [illegible] at the home [illegible] the flu.

PLANS LONG BANKS OF TREES TO HONOR DEAD

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A nation-wide movement has been started by the American Forestry association for the planting of memorial trees for the soldier dead.

Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the association, has written to every governor, asking cooperation. The plan is to have each state plant memorial trees along the great trans-continental motor highways.

P. S. Ridsdale, secretary of the association, says many towns and cities have taken up the idea and the General Federation of Women's Clubs is considering a similar plan for the Lincoln highway to be carried out by the state organizations.

"Nothing could be more appropriate," says Mr. Pack, "than to have each state, through which a motor highway passes, plant 'victory oaks' or 'victory elms' or other trees, for her soldiers who have died in battle. The motor has played a mighty part in winning the war.

"Wood has played a big part in victory too. Our stocks must be replenished. With each state cooperating with the highway authorities, a living age-long lesson could be taught the coming generations as to the beauties and value of forestry."

The recommendation of the Council of National Defense have been so generally advertised that there is little need of repeating, in brief—the stores are prohibited from increasing their selling forces during the holiday season, or otherwise using additional man power durng the Christmas season. This store and all others have been advised to bring this all-important fact to the attention of their patrons so their buying may be done at once, avoiding any last minute Christmas rush.

This store prepared earlier than usual by purchasing holiday stocks to meet the demand of buyers who are now taking advantage of less congested traffic and avoiding the liability of depleted stocks, which can not be replenished at the low prices now prevailing, owing to present manufacturing conditions.

We guarantee satisfaction or immediately refund money. Guests at this store are assured deliberate, painstaking attention in all departments.

PEACE ADDS TO U. S. FOOD TASK

Europe Needs Nearly Double Last Year's Supplies From America.

ECONOMY MUST CONTINUE.

With the return of peace America is confronted by a food problem even harder of solution than that with which we coped in time of war. We have an entirely new world situation in food. It will mean essential changes in our domestic program. But more important than this we must of necessity require increased export.

Last year we shipped 11 820 000 tons of foodstuffs to the European Allies. Had the war continued we would have increased this enormous figure to 17,550 000 tons in the present year. Now, with the responsibility of feeding millions of people liberated from the German yoke, our exports must be brought up to at least 20 000 000 tons—practically the limit of loading capacity at our ports

World Food Demand Increased.

The end of the war will create an enormously increased demand for food. Humanity demands that the starving millions freed from Prussian oppression shall have sufficient supplies to assure their return to health and prosperity. If these liberated nations are faced with starvation they cannot establish orderly governments. Hunger breeds anarchy in a people. The war to free the world for democracy will be lost after it has been won. America must continue its work to liberation and by sharing its food make democracy safe in the world

In order to meet this new situation the Food Administration has made a careful survey of the food resources of the whole world in relation to the total demands. Computing supplies on the basis of the avoidance of waste and war consumption, it is found that wheat and rye may be obtained in sufficient quantities to meet economical world consumption, high protein feed for dairy animals will show a shortage of about 3 000 000 tons while there will be sufficient supplies of other feeds to allow economical consumption beans peas and rice will also be found in sufficient quantities to maintain economy in consumption there are sufficient supplies of beef to keep pace with the capacity of refrigerating space

Great Fat Shortage.

The most distinct reversal of policy will come with pork and dairy products, vegetable oils, sugar and coffee. Utmost economy will be required in the use of fats and oils, in which there is a world shortage of about 3 000 000,000 pounds. There are sufficient supplies for us to return to our normal sugar consumption if other nations continue their present short rations, or even if their rations are slightly increased. If the European countries, however are to resume their normal sugar consumption it will be through our continued conservation in order to share with them. There is a surplus of coffee

Of the world total required to produce these results North America will furnish more than 60 per cent. The United States including the West Indies will be in a position to furnish a total of about 20 000 000 tons—against our pre-war exports of about 6 000 000 tons

The bread grains situation allows the world to abandon the use of substitutes in wheat bread. Large supplies have accumulated in the Argentine Australia and other hitherto inaccessible markets. A continued high milling percentage, economy of consumption and elimination of waste make it possible for the world to return to a white wheat loaf

Of all our export possibilities in fats, the largest and most important item is pork. While we cannot supply the world deficiency we will be able to help it enormously because of the past policies of stimulating production and restraining consumption. The government's policy with regard to stimulating the production of wheat and of pork the readiest source of fats is thus amply justified by the situation upon the return of peace

Famine Specter Still Stalks

The people of the United States must continue care and wise economy in the use of food in order to complete the work of liberating the world. But even with the utmost conservation and production in this country there will be in Europe for the next year or more starvation beyond all human power to [illegible]. In North Russia there are 40 000 000 people to whom food cannot be made accessible this winter. Their transportation is demoralized in complete anarchy. And even if internal transportation [illegible] Millions [illegible] have [illegible] of war will be [illegible]

We must realize that upon our shoulders [illegible] responsibility [illegible] [illegible]

METHODS OF DEMOCRACY

The [illegible] which the United States Food Administration has relied on the voluntary support of the American people is shown by a statement made by the United States Food Administrator [illegible] the Senate Agricultural Committee less than three months after this country entered the war. That he was justified in his implicit confidence in the strength of democracy [illegible] support we have [illegible] the Allies.

[illegible] is worth any [illegible] Mr Hoover declared "we can do these things by cooperation [illegible] by self sacrifice [illegible] the patriotic mobilization [illegible] the brains of this country. # Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen Eighteen Most Remarkable and Momentous National Occasion

For this store to properly express itself, and to give full meaning, and a full definition of what Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen-Eighteen, means to the people of the United States, is, we believe, a very difficult task.

Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen-Eighteen, is so totally different from any Thanksgiving we have celebrated in the past fifty years, that is is truly a day worthy of careful, serious thoughts, and a day in which to render thanks to God that the day on which the war ended has passed.

And we think then that the occasion for the ending of the war is truly an excellent reason for celebrating Thanksgiving Day, Nineteen-Eighteen, in a most glorious manner.

Yes, we have very, very much to be thankful for.

Let us be thankful too, equally as much—that the ravages and sorrows, miseries, bloodshed and the ruin of this unspeakable war have been spared to the fair land of America.

Let us be thankful that we Americans have the grit, the ability and the efficiency to demonstrate unto the world that although we are a peace-loving people, we were able to build, in the short space of one year, or possibly less than one year, a military organization, with all the attendant steel and munitions-making and the budling of ships in a manner that has startled the world. We have proved, as if it were a message to all mankind, to all the world, that would be an uprising of both men and women, to an extent never before dreamed of—they would rise phoenix-like one hundred million strong over-night, ready to sacrifice and die that this Government of the people and by the people shall never perish from the earth.

And so let us be thankful and give thanks unto God on this Thanksgiving Day, formally set aside by the President of the United States as a national day of thanksgiving.

As usual this store will be closed all day Thanksgiving Day. Will close at 6 P. M. Wednesday.

The Spirit of the First Thanksgiving Renews Itself After Three Hundred Years

When our Pilgrim forefathers made their devout prayers of Thanksgiving on that bleak bit of New England coast nearly three hundred years ago, they felt that they had at last reached a place in their history when they had achieved a great victory for themselves, little knowing that they were sowing the first seeds which would develop into this great and glorious nation.

Now, after this intervening three hundred years, we again have reason to offer up our most devout thanks that a great victory has been gained and that we and our Allies have sown seeds that will grow into a tree whose wide spreading branches will protect the smaller nations of the earth and make this a far better world for us and down thru posterity
